It's a sad day for Sam, Diane, Carla, and Cliff – their long time friend, Norm, has passed away, and they have all gathered for the wake. It seems Norm has died at this very bar, and the circumstances surrounding his demise are more than questionable. Join us for Norm's wake, but beware - as accusations fly, tempers will get heated, pasts will be dug up, and someone – maybe even you – could be the next victim as we say "Cheers...to Murder!"
